24 April 1953

Director of Training

Weekly Summary Report

1. The summer session seminars sponsored jointly by the Office of Training and the School for Advanced International Studies will begin as scheduled on 29 June and run until 26 August. General title of the series is THE IMPACT OF SOVIET IMPERIALISM ON THE FREE WORLD. Some of the subjects treated and speakers during the series will be "The USSR and the non-Soviet World in Historical Perspective" - George Kennan; "The Basic Strategical and Tactical Concepts of Soviet Expansionism" - Moss Harvey, Department of State; "The Role of Force" - William Deakin, St. Antony's College, Oxford University, England; "Present and Potential Military Capabilities of the Soviet Bloc" - Hanson Baldwin; "The Eastern Mediterranean in the East-West Conflict" - (speaker to be determined); and "China's Role in the Communist Revolution in Asia" - (speaker to be determined). Agency applicants to this series will take the full eight weeks.

2. A selection panel under the chairmanship of the Director of Training recommended for selection by the DCI three qualified candidates for the 1953-54 class of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. Similar recommendations will be made of candidates to the Army, Navy and Air War Colleges on 15 May.
